

contract for and superintend the building of an addition to the Court House in Towson sufficiently large to accommodate with offices all the public offices of Baltimore county, and the furnishing said Court House and offices when so constructed with necessary and proper cases for the reception and preservation of the public records and with all the necessary furniture and such other things as the public convenience may require, at a total cost not to exceed the sum of sixty thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore county are hereby authorized and required, upon the requisition of the said Board of Commissioners appointed by this Act, or a majority of them, to pay over to the treasurer of said Board of Commissioners such sums of money as may be from time to time required and found necessary for the construction of said addition to said Court House, and furnishing the same; such sums not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of sixty thousand dollars. Said payments shall be made out of any fund or funds which may be available therefor, so far as the same suffice, and if there be no sufficient sums available for such purpose, the County Commissioners of Baltimore county are hereby authorized and required to borrow on the credit of Baltimore county, from time to time, and upon such terms as they may deem proper, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, any sum or sums of money required and found necessary for the construction of said addition, and for furnishing the same; and in the event of borrowing any such sum or sums as aforesaid, said County Commissioners of Baltimore county are hereby authorized and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of Baltimore county in the levies of 1909, 1910 and 1911 such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to repay the amount or amounts so borrowed as aforesaid, with interest thereon, and shall apply the sums so levied to the repayment of such loans.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners appointed by this Act shall appoint one of their own number as treasurer, who shall have in charge all moneys borrowed as herein provided, and who shall pay out and disburse the same upon the order of a majority of said commissioners, and keep a full and perfect account of all moneys received and disbursed by him with the vouchers therefor, which he shall regularly render and exhibit to the said commissioners at such time and in such manner as they or a majority of them may require, and shall faithfully account for all money received by him as treasurer as aforesaid, and the person so appointed as treasurer, before he acts as such, shall give bond with surety to be ap-