

126. Such local Board of Health shall take cognizance of all unhealthy nuisances within the limits of Baltimore county; and any person or corporation refusing or neglecting after reasonable notice, to comply with the requirements of such board in respect to such nuisance, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars. If the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of property on which any such nuisance exist, shall refuse or neglect to abate the same after such reasonable notice, the county health officer, after the expiration of the time set out in such notice, shall remove the said nuisance, or cause of said nuisance, at the expense of said owner or owners, occupier or occupiers; and the cost of removing said nuisance or cause of said nuisance, may be recovered by said county health officer in the name of the County Commissioners of Baltimore county from the said owner or owners, occupier or occupiers by suit if necessary.

127. Whenever any legally qualified medical practitioner or any one or more persons affected thereby shall make a complaint in writing to the local Board of Health, or to the county health officer, that any water course, well, spring, open ditch, gutter, cesspool, drain, privy, pit, pig pen or other place, or any accumulation or deposit of any substance is in a condition dangerous to human health, said local Board of Health shall immediately institute an investigation, and if it shall decide that the place or thing complained of is in such a condition as to injuriously affect the life or health of any person, the said board shall cause to be served a notice in writing on the person, firm or corporation by whose act, default or sufferance the place or thing complained of arises or exists, requiring him or them to abate the same within a time to be specified in the notice, and any person, firm or corporation refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements in such notice shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense in reference to the same place or thing be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or may be imprisoned for a period not exceeding thirty days for each offense, in the discretion of the court. Every day during which a nuisance shall be permitted to continue to exist after service of the aforesaid notice to abate the same, shall constitute a separate and distinct offense within the meaning of this sub-title.

128. No person shall haul, cart, carry, drag or deposit any dead carcass or other carrion in Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore, unless he shall bury or cause the same to be buried at least two feet under ground, and so as effectually to prevent any offensive smell therefrom under the
