

ous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, or lager beer, to be bartered or sold on Sunday or election day other than primary election days, no license shall be granted, and his, her or its application shall be refused, or the court, for any other reason, as disclosed by proof, may refuse to grant the license applied for, and in all cases where the applicant or applicants, after due diligence, has been misled as to the qualification of a signer or signers to his application, as such qualification has been defined by this Act, the court or the judge hearing the protest shall have power to allow him to substitute other signers in the place and stead of those disqualified, in case the license would be otherwise granted.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the clerk, in giving the notice required by section 5 of this Act, shall embrace in one notice all the names of all the persons whose applications shall have been filed at the time of giving such notice, separating them only so far as to make such notice easily intelligible to the public, and if either of the days for the giving of said notice shall be a Sunday, then such notice shall be given as soon thereafter as possible, so as to secure two weekly insertions of such notice in a newspaper published in said county before the time fixed for cause to be shown against the issuance of the license applied for.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the court who receives the said application, certificates and affidavits, shall file and carefully preserve the same, and after giving said notice, if no cause be shown as herein provided, and within the time specified herein, and in cases in which the objections shall be overruled and the license granted, shall issue to the applicant or applicants the license applied for, upon receiving from the applicant or applicants the following sums or license fees, viz: If the license is for twelve months and to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or both by the drink, or in quantities not more than a quart, the sum of four hundred dollars; if the license is for twelve months, and to sell spirituous and fermented liquors in quantities not less than a pint and not to be drunk on the premises, the said clerk shall enquire of the applicant, under oath by such clerk administered, as to the value of the stock of spirituous or fermented liquors intended to be kept on hand in the business he proposes to conduct under the license applied for, and if it shall appear from the statement then made under oath, that the value of the applicant's stock of spirituous or fermented liquors will not exceed one thousand dollars, the license fee shall be four hundred dollars; if more than one thousand dollars and not exceeding two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be four hundred and fifty