

dollars; if more than two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be five hundred dollars.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if the license applied for shall be for nine, six or three months, then the license fee shall be for three-fourths, one-half or one-fourth of the amounts severally specified for the twelve months' licenses enumerated in the preceding section.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That no person having a license under the provisions of this Act, shall sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or upon any day on which elections, other than primary elections, are now or may hereafter be held, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any minor, nor shall he knowingly sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any drunkard, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any persons whose parents, guardian, husband or wife shall have given such licensee notice in writing, under oath, that such person is of intemperate habits, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors at his place of business between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock A. M. at any time.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That no person having a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in quantities less than a pint, at any place, shall place or maintain, or permit to be placed or maintained, any screen, blind, curtain, partition, or any obstruction that will interfere with a view of the business conducted on the premises.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That every person receiving a license under this Act to sell spirituous or fermented liquors shall frame his license under glass and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read in his chief place of making sales, and no license issued under this Act shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect this requirement.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That if any person shall hereafter be convicted of selling spirituous or fermented liquors without having procured a license therefor under the provisions of this Act, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer or informers, and undergo imprisonment in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months, nor more than twelve months.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That if any person having a license under the provisions of this Act, shall violate any of