

the provisions of this Act, upon conviction thereof, except in the cases enumerated in the next preceding and succeeding section, he shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and on conviction a second time, which fact the court may ascertain from the dockets of the court, in connection with evidence, he shall pay a fine of two hundred dollars and his license shall be suppressed.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That if any person having a license under the provisions of this Act, shall sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind to any person who is a minor, or under twenty-one years of age, or shall sell or barter to any person such spirituous or fermented liquors, for the purpose of being drunk by such person who is a minor, or under twenty-one years of age, or shall give to any such person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age any spirituous or fermented liquors, or shall allow upon the premises occupied by him, any person who is under twenty-one years of age, to drink any such spirituous or fermented liquors, sold or bartered or given by him, he shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and if he be convicted a second time, which fact the court may ascertain from an inspection of its dockets and by other evidence, he shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of prosecution, or be confined in jail for not less than one month, nor more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court, and it shall be the duty of the court before whom such person shall be convicted to suppress his, her or its license.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That one-fourth of all moneys paid to the said clerk for license fees under the provisions of this Act shall be held by him for the use of the State and paid over and accounted for as money received for license has been heretofore accounted for, and the remainder thereof shall be paid by him to the treasurer of Baltimore county, for county uses; provided, however, that the clerk of the court shall be entitled to retain five per cent. of the gross license fees for the collection of same, to be accounted for as other fees of his office.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall not be construed to authorize the issue of license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors at any place in said county where the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors is not now authorized by existing law.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the druggists and apothecaries shall not be required to obtain license under the pro-