

from the amount of said salary for each of the first five years that the same may be payable.

102K. After any teacher shall have been retired under section 102I, the board of trustees shall have the right at any time to cause such teacher again to be brought before it and examined by its physician, and also to examine other witnesses for the purpose of ascertaining whether such teacher shall remain on the retired roll. The fee or charge of the examining physician shall be paid by the board of trustees. Such teacher shall be entitled to at least thirty days' notice, and to be present at the hearing of any such evidence, shall be permitted to propound any question pertinent or relative to such matter, and shall have the right to introduce evidence upon his or her own behalf. Such teacher and all witnesses shall be examined under oath, and any member of said board of trustees is hereby authorized and empowered to administer such oath. If the board of trustees shall find such teacher qualified for regular duty, he or she shall report to the superintendent of Public Instruction of said city whenever required so to do by the board of trustees, and said superintendent shall assign such teacher to such service or employment as may be within his or her power to perform, in the judgment of such superintendent and of the examining physician employed by said board of trustees. During the time of such employment such teacher shall receive the regular salary therefor, and shall cease to be entitled to any payment out of said fund because of the disability or incapacity, on account of which such teacher was originally retired. Any teacher who may be retired under section 102I and re-assigned for active duty under this section, for the purposes of later retirement under this Act, shall be considered as having been in active service during the period of the former retirement.

102L. Every teacher retired under the provisions of this Act shall continue as an employe of the Mayor and City Council, but shall be compensated from the Teachers' Retirement Fund, as provided for in this Act, and it shall be the duty of any teacher so retired to render, without extra compensation, such teaching services and at such times as the Board of School Commissioners shall direct, provided the Board of School Commissioners shall not direct any such retired teacher to perform any teaching services except such as the board of trustees may certify to the Board of School Commissioners to be within the reasonable physical power of such retired teacher, and provided further, that no such retired teacher shall be required to render teaching service for a longer period than 15 days in any school year.
