

months' licenses shall be in the proportion of one-half to the rates of the twelve months' licenses as hereinafter provided by this sub-title of this article; provided, further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the transfer of licenses as now provided in this law.

678. If, after the notice and hearing provided for in this sub-division of this article the said board shall decide to grant the license prayed for, they shall notify the applicant of such decision in writing, and if the applicant shall, within thirty days from the date when such license granted is to become effective, produce to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas the said notification, and pay said clerk the sum of money herein specified for the particular license prayed for, the said clerk shall thereupon issue to him the license granted to him by the said board; but every grant of a twelve months' license upon which no license has been actually taken out and paid for prior to the first day of June in the year of its issue, and every grant of a six months' license upon which no license has been actually taken out and paid for prior to the first day of December in the year of its issue, shall be, after the said first day of June or December, respectively, null and void, and no license shall be issued thereupon. For a saloon or restaurant in which distilled liquors or any admixture of distilled liquors containing more than fifteen per centum of alcohol, or fermented liquors containing less than fifteen per centum of alcohol may be sold by retail by the drink or in quantities or packages not exceeding five gallons of any spirituous or fermented liquors except lager beer, and not exceeding one keg of eight gallons or less of lager beer, to be drunk on the premises, or not, as desired by the purchaser, the sum of five hundred dollars shall be paid for a twelve months' license for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1908; the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars for a twelve months' license for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1909; the sum of one thousand dollars for a twelve months' license for the twelve months beginning on May 1, 1910, and for each succeeding term of twelve months, beginning on the first day of May in each and every year thereafter, and a sum equal to one-half of said respective sums shall be paid for a six months' license. For a hotel license the same amounts shall be paid in the same manner. For a club license the same amounts shall be paid in the same manner. For a retail grocer's license the sum of five hundred dollars shall be paid for a twelve months' license for each term of twelve months, beginning on the first day of May in each and every year, accounting from May 1, 1908, and a sum equal to one-half of said sum of five hundred dollars shall be paid for a six
