

682. No licensee under the sub-division of this article holding any other than a hotel license, shall sell or furnish to any person intoxicating liquors on any day upon which elections are now, or may hereafter be required by law to be held nor on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday; no licensee under the sub-division of this article holding any other than a hotel or a club license shall sell or furnish to any person intoxicating liquors between the hours of twelve midnight and five o'clock A. M., nor in any place to which an entrance shall be allowed other than directly from a public-traveled way. Nor shall any such licensee holding a hotel license sell or furnish any such intoxicating liquors on said prohibited days, except to bona fide registered guests to be drunk in their rooms or at their meals, nor shall any club licensees sell or furnish such liquors to any person at any time between the hours of one o'clock A. M. and five o'clock A. M. on any day. And provided, further, that any licensees under the sub-divisions of this article may with the permission of the Board of Police Commissioners at any bona fide entertainment of any society, club or association, sell intoxicating liquors between such hours as the board aforesaid may designate in such permit.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 197.

AN ACT to repeal section 669 of article 4, entitled "City of Baltimore," of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, sub-title "Liquors and Intoxicating Drinks," as the same now stands, and to re-enact the same with amendments and to add two additional sections thereto, to be known as sections 690A and 690B.
