

city, one captain, two round sergeants, two turnkeys (who shall have the rank of patrolman), and one clerk at each station house, which said clerk shall receive the salary of twenty dollars per week; one captain-commander, who shall be assigned to the management and command of the police patrol boat provided for in section 778 of this article; twenty-one lieutenants, two of whom shall be assigned to each station house; one of whom shall be assigned to the said police patrol boat, and who shall be styled first officer, one of whom shall have charge of the mounted force and the horses, wagons and stables; one of whom shall be the superintendent of the police signal and telephone service; one of whom shall be assigned to duty in connection with the bureau of identification, and one of whom shall be assigned to night duty at police headquarters; one captain of detectives, detectives not exceeding twenty-five, who shall not be allowed to follow any business or profession, but who shall devote their entire time to the discharge of their duties, as detectives; such number of sergeants as the board, in their judgment, may deem necessary for each police district in said city; one additional round sergeant who shall be assigned as assistant to the superintendent of the police signal and telephone service; seven hundred and twenty-five patrolmen and fifty probationers. The said police force may be increased at any time if in the opinion of the board, the public peace shall so require, to any number and for such periods of time as they may think proper by the appointment of special policemen, who shall receive the sum of $2.50 per day for their services. The members of the police force shall receive the following salaries, payable every two weeks: The marshal shall receive thirty-four hundred dollars per annum; the deputy marshal, twenty-eight hundred dollars per annum; each captain, including the captain of detectives and captains-commander shall receive forty dollars per week; each lieutenant, twenty-seven dollars per week; each round sergeant and detective, twenty-five dollars per week; each sergeant, twenty-two dollars per week; each patrolman and turnkey, twenty dollars per week, and each probationer, fifteen dollars per week. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in any manner changing or altering the method of making appointments or promotions in, or removals from the police force as prescribed in chapter 16 of the Acts of 1900, but said police force shall be regulated and managed in all respects in accordance with said chapter 16 of said Acts of 1900; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to legislate out of office any police officer, detective or officer of police now in the force, or any employe of the Board of Police Commissioners.