

ing said jail erected, and in case of death or refusal to act, or resignation of any one or more of them, a majority of the judges of the Circuit Court of said county shall fill the vacancy or vacancies; the members of said committee shall serve without pay. A majority of them shall form a quorum for business that shall be necessary for the decision of all questions arising in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said building committee shall adopt a plan and specification for the said building and the necessary furniture therefor, and may contract for the same, having first invited sealed proposals by advertisement or otherwise, and contract or contracts shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, who shall give good and sufficient bond to the County Commissioners to be approved by the said building committee for the faithful performance of said contract or contracts. But in the event that no satisfactory bid shall have been received from any contractor or contractors, then the building committee may proceed to erect said building in any other manner the majority of said committee shall determine; provided they shall not exceed the amount provided therefor.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the president of the Board of County Commissioners shall, upon the order of the building committee, pay over to the same such sums as they may from time to time require, taking their receipt for the same; and the County Commissioners shall cause to be entered into a book the amount received from the sales of bonds under this Act, also keep an accurate account of all expenditure or cost of whatsoever kind that may be made in connection with the building of said jail, and to have same published in a newspaper published in the county.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 13, 1908.
