

order therefor) or who shall knowingly and wilfully make any misrepresentations or false statement as to his age, and by reason of such misrepresentations or false statement shall obtain any spirituous or fermented liquors from any such person or persons as aforesaid licensed to sell the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of Carroll county for not more than thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court or the justice of the peace before whom such case may be tried; provided, that the testimony given by any minor or person under the age of twenty-one years in the prosecution of any person for selling or furnishing any spirituous or fermented liquors to him shall not be used in any prosecution against said minor under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 54c. Any person, not a licensee who shall knowingly procure for an habitual drunkard, or any person of intemperate habits, any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court; any person (excepting parent or guardian) not a licensee, who shall procure, sell, furnish or give to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. Any licensee who permits minors to frequent, loiter or loaf about his place of business, or disreputable, or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation or resort, shall be deemed guilty of maintaining a nuisance, and upon indictment and conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, and his license shall be revoked by the court, and the same person or persons shall not again be granted a license under the provisions of this Act within two years from the time of such revocation.

SEC. 54F. Any person or persons having a license under the provisions of this Act, who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of its provisions or of doing or omitting to do any act that is prohibited or directed by it to be done shall, unless otherwise specially provided herein, for the first offense be subject to a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days,