

the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Birds and Game," as amended by chapters 237 of the Acts of 1896, 434 of the Acts of 1902, and 584 of the Acts of 1906, respectively, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that sections 38, 38A, 38B, 38c and 38d be and they are hereby re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

38. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to hunt, chase, shoot at, shoot, trap, kill or in any manner take or destroy any quail, partridge, pheasant, woodcock, snipe, railbird, reed bird, swamp black bird, wild rabbit, crow-bill duck, teal or summer duck, or squirrel, or to have in his or her possession any such birds, rabbit or wild duck herein mentioned in Cecil county, without the same are to be liberated for breeding purposes, except during the seasons hereinafter enumerated, to wit: For quail, partridges, woodcock, wild rabbit, from October the twenty-fifth to December the twenty-fourth; and for snipe from March 1 to December 24; and for rail birds, grouse, pheasant, reed bird, swamp black bird and marsh plover from September the first to February the first; and for squirrels, from September first to December twenty-fifth; and for crow-bill ducks, teal and summer ducks and other marsh ducks, from August first to April tenth; provided, however, these ducks shall not be hunted, shot at, shot, or killed before the first day of November in the Elk river below a line drawn from Plum Point to Locust Point on said river, or beyond the mouth of any of the small creeks flowing into the same, from any boat, vessel or craft of any kind; and it shall not be lawful for any person, company or corporation to sell or offer to sell or expose for sale any of the birds or game, except rail birds and reed birds, wild rabbit or ducks mentioned in this section at any season of the year, but it shall be lawful for any person to shoot or destroy, at any time, any kind of black bird flying over or feeding upon the grain fields.

38A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a citizen of the State of Maryland to hunt, chase, shoot, trap, kill or in any manner destroy any of the birds or game mentioned in the foregoing section of this Act unless he or she shall have first obtained a license therefor from the clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county, and the fee for said license shall be five dollars and fifty cents for each and every license so granted; and each and every license shall contain the name and residence of the person to whom said license is issued, and no person shall use said license for the purpose for which the same was granted other than the one to whom said license was issued; and out of each and every license so issued by said clerk he shall retain fifty cents of the same for his fee, and the balance shall be paid