

to the best of my knowledge and ability, without fear, affection or partiality."

SEC. 85c. The president and commissioners of said town shall, at some meeting prior to the first Monday in May, appoint some person to act as judge of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same manner as judges of election for State and county offices in this State are required to qualify, before a justice of the peace, and shall open the polls at 1 o'clock P. M. on the first Monday in May in each year, and close the same at 6.30 P. M. on said date, and the persons voted for president as aforesaid at said election who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be president as aforesaid, and the persons in number, according to this section, voted for at said election for commissioners of said town, who shall respectively receive the highest number of votes, shall be commissioners as aforesaid, and in case of a tie, the election for president or commissioners aforesaid, a new election shall be held, after giving at least five days' notice of the time for holding the same.

SEC. 89. The said board shall annually appoint by ballot a treasurer, who shall be selected from among the members of said board, whose duties it shall be to receive and receipt for all monies belonging to said corporation or to which it shall be in any wise entitled, to collect and receive all taxes, general or special, levied upon the assessed value of all property within said town, and to receive the fines and penalties imposed by said board and to discharge such other duties pertaining to his office as are, or may be imposed by law or any ordinance of the said board; provided, that before entering upon the duties of said office the said treasurer shall annually give bond to the said president and commissioners, with surety or sureties, to be approved by said board, in double the amount of money, which said board shall estimate will come into the hands of said treasurer during the term for which he shall be appointed, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as said treasurer, and the said board shall have authority at any time to require the said treasurer to give additional bond or security conditioned as aforesaid, for the amount of money in his hands or to come into his hands during his term of office shall be greater than is estimated as aforesaid by said board. Said treasurer shall continue in office until his successor is appointed and qualified, but shall be subject to removal by said board for neglect of duty, disobedience of orders or other malfeasance in office. As the entire compensation for his services which he shall render under and by virtue of the powers and duties conferred and laid on him by this Act, or the ordinances of said