

SEC. 95. Said bailiff shall give bond to be approved by the County Commissioners as other constable's bond for the faithful performance of his duties as constable, and also bond to said president and commissioners for the faithful performance of his duties as town bailiff, and the faithful performance of such duties as may be imposed upon him by the ordinances of said president and commissioners.

SEC. 89. They shall have the power to open any streets, lanes and alleys in the town, or to extend these already open, and to straighten and increase the width thereof, and to remove all obstructions from those already located and used, and if they can not agree with the owner of the land or other property necessary for this purpose or such person being incompetent to contract or shall reside out of Cecil county, then such land or other property may be condemned for the purposes aforesaid in the manner prescribed in the Code of Public General Laws, and may assess and levy the damages and expenses thereof generally upon the whole of the assessable property of the town, or especially upon the assessable property of persons benefited thereby.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 625.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 106c of article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Cecil County," sub-title "County Commissioners," as enacted by chapter 387 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1894, and to add an additional section to said article, to be designated as section 106d, to follow immediately after 106c.

Whereas a bill has passed the House of Representatives providing for the improvement of the public roads of Cecil county; and,

Whereas the said bill imposes additional duties, and will greatly increase the labors of the County Commissioners of Cecil county; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 106c of article 8 of the Code of Public Local
