

affidavits of at least two citizens of the State of Maryland that such violation has occurred shall be taken and deemed to be duly verified information for the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 300M. That it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the State of Maryland to enforce the provisions of Sections 300K and 300L of this Act, and all powers granted to the said Attorney General for the enforcement of any other Act or Acts are hereby granted to him for the purpose of the enforcement of said provisions of this Act.

SEC. 300N. That any employe of such railroad company or of any such receiver who may be killed or injured by any train which was run or operated contrary to the provisions of Section 300K of this Act, or who may be killed or injured as a result of any act of any person employed contrary to the provisions of Section 300K of this Act shall not be deemed thereby to have assumed the risk thereby occasioned, although continuing in the employment of such railroad company or of such receiver, after the unlawful running or operating of such train or the unlawful employment of such person has been brought to his knowledge; nor shall any such employe be held to have contributed to his death or injury in any case where such railroad company or such receiver shall have violated any of the provisions of Section 300K of this Act when such violation contributed to the deaths or injury of such employe; and all questions of negligence, or either or both, arising in cases brought under or by virtue of said section of this Act shall be for the jury.

SEC. 300P. The invalidity of any portion of this Act shall not affect the validity of any portion thereof which can be given effect without such invalid part.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, 1908.

Approved April 8, 1908.

CHAPTER 280.

AN ACT—Telegraph companies shall show conspicuously on each and every telegram delivered the time it was filed for transmission, and the time it was received at its destination.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Maryland, represented in the General Assembly, SECTION 1. Telegraph companies engaged in the business of transmitting communications by telegraph in the State of Maryland, and charging tolls there-