

bonds, at or before the maturity thereof then such members of the Board of County Commissioners who shall, by their vote, agree to such diversion, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not less than the amount applied or diverted, and upon failure to pay said fine and costs, may, in the discretion of the court trying the case, be committed to jail until said fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the monies arising from the sale of said bonds shall be paid to the joint order of the president of the Board of County Commissioners of Cecil county and the treasurer thereof; and the said treasurer shall keep in a book, to be provided for this purpose, a full registry of the bonds sold, the different series, serial numbers of the bonds and names of the purchasers, the amount realized therefor and all transfers or assignments thereof; and the deposits of the purchase money for said bonds shall, when not used for immediate purposes, be made in some savings institutions or trust company under the same condition as hereinbefore required for the sinking fund money and the interest thereon.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the bonds so to be issued shall be designated as "bonds for the permanent improvement of public highways of Cecil county," and the funds arising therefrom shall not be used for or diverted to any other purpose under the penalty provided under the next preceding section.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of the improvements of the roads, as aforesaid, the Governor shall appoint an auxiliary board, consisting of four citizens of Cecil county, to confer and act with the Board of County Commissioners as to the proper roads to be improved, and the manner of their improvement, and who shall advise with the said Board of County Commissioners as to the character or the place where the work is to be done, and also as to the letting of contracts for such improvements, and the decision of a majority of said two boards in joint session shall be final as to the places and manner of said improvements. The said auxiliary board so appointed shall receive no compensation other than their personal expenses, of which they shall monthly render an account to the County Commissioners of said county, shall thereupon, immediately pay the same in cash.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That, whereas provision is hereinbefore made for a levy to pay the interest upon said bonds, if the County Commissioners shall determine that the same can be paid out of the general fund provided for county highways, they shall not be required to make a special levy for said interest,
