

vide for the collection of taxes therein," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to be designated, respectively, as sections 8, 9 and 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Charles County," sub-title "Treasurer," so as to read as follows:

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said Treasurer shall keep and pay over, according to law, or upon the order of the County Commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county, collected by him, and shall also keep and pay over to the Treasurer of the State, according to law, all State taxes in said county collected by him; and he shall keep a full, particular and correct account of all moneys received by him and paid out by him and of all matters relating to the duties of his office, together with all vouchers relating thereto; and he shall present, quarterly, to the County Commissioners a true and faithful account of all moneys received and disbursed by him, and all cash on hand during the preceding quarter; the said reports to begin not later than the expiration of the first quarter after the term of office of the said Treasurer shall begin. The said Treasurer shall deposit all the moneys collected by him in a bank or trust company to be designated by the County Commissioners, and in the name of himself as Treasurer of Charles county, with power in the County Commissioners to change the said depository if they shall see fit; and the Treasurer shall pay out the same only upon orders from the County Commissioners or any other body that may be authorized by law to give such orders by any Act pending or passed at any time by the present Legislature or hereafter, by check upon said bank or trust company, signed by said Treasurer. It shall be in the power of the County Commissioners to require money to be paid by the Treasurer at any time he may have it in his possession or deposited as aforesaid, for the payment of bills that may be levied against the county, or the said County Commissioners may discount bills held by private parties or public officers that may be levied but not be due, under such arrangements as to discount as they may be able to make, and the failure of the Treasurer to conform to any requirement of the County Commissioners as to such payment or deposit of money as herein set forth shall subject the said Treasurer to a liability to the county for an amount equivalent to all such money thus held by him and ordered to be paid over, at six per centum per annum, until it shall be so paid over, and also a deduction of all commissions on said money until said requirement shall be carried out as designated by the County Commissioners. The County Commissioners may at any time they may see fit require the Treasurer to report to them as to the amount of money held or deposited by him to the
