

credit of himself as Treasurer, or in other respects as to the state of his accounts; and they may also require from any bank with whom money may be deposited, any special agreement or security, in addition to the corporate liability of the bank, for the money thus held or owing to the county.

SEC. 9. For the collection of all taxes for State or county purposes that may at the time of the passage of this Act be due for the year 1906, the Treasurer may proceed to advertise and sell all property of which taxes are so due and in arrears, without further notice to the delinquent taxpayers of the amount so due and in arrears, the advertising of the property of all the delinquents to be at the same time, and the form of notice and the time of advertisement to be as hereinafter set forth. For all taxes that are due and in arrears for the fiscal year 1907, he shall proceed not later than the 15th day of May, 1908, to advertise a list, in one week's edition, as hereinafter set forth, of the names of all such persons so delinquent; and if said taxes are not paid on or before the 15th day of June, 1908, he shall immediately proceed to advertise and sell the property of all such delinquents in manner as hereinafter set forth. On and after the first day of January, 1909, in each and every year thereafter, the Treasurer shall immediately after the first day of February make up a list of all delinquent taxpayers, and the amount for which they are respectively in arrears, and publish the same in one week's edition in at least two newspapers of general circulation in Charles county; and if the amounts so due and in arrears are not paid on or before the first day of April, he shall proceed to advertise and sell all of such property as hereinafter set forth. The said advertisements shall be inserted in at least two newspapers of general circulation published in Charles county, to be designated by the County Commissioners, the fees for advertising the same to be as follows: For advertising the list of delinquent taxpayers, twenty-five cents for each name in each paper that they shall be advertised; for advertising said sales, one dollar for each delinquent in each paper in which they shall be advertised; and the advertisement of sale shall contain the name of the person or persons assessed, the property upon which the taxes are due and in arrears with a brief description of the property, the district of its location, and such reference to the title records in the clerk's office as to render the same easy of identification, the amount of taxes due and in arrears thereon, together with interest, costs and expenses accrued and to accrue thereon on the day of sale, to which general list of items shall be appended a notice that if such taxes are not paid on or before a day to be named therein, not less than twenty-five nor more than thirty days from the