

date of the first advertisement, together with accrued interest thereon and proportionate cost of advertising-fees, the Treasurer shall proceed at 10 A. M. on a named day, at the courthouse door in said county, to offer each and every parcel of land, premises and other property for sale to the highest bidder for cash. The said notice shall be published in not less than four weekly insertions in each of the newspapers hereinbefore referred to, and on the said day, at the time named, the Treasurer shall proceed to sell any and all such parcels of land, premises and personal property on which taxes, interests, costs and fees shall not have been paid, and to continue said sale each day (legal holidays excepted), from 10 A. M. until 3 o'clock P. M., until every such parcel of land, premises and personal property, or more than a sufficient quantity to pay all taxes, costs and expenses for each case, shall have been offered for sale. In case for any piece of property there shall not be a sufficient bid to cover the taxes, interests, costs and expenses, the same shall be bid in by the County Commissioners, the same to be reported, as in other cases, as land sold for taxes, and at the expiration of the time limited for redemption, shall pass to the county, to become absolutely the property of the county, subject to be sold thereafter by the County Commissioners at public sale in substantially like manner as property is sold under the Public General Laws of this State by mortgage or attorney for mortgagee, under power of sale inserted therein. The compensation for the Treasurer in the proceedings hereinbefore set forth for the taxation of property, not including court expenses in ratification proceedings, shall be such as shall be prescribed by the County Commissioners of Charles county, who shall adopt a uniform system of charges as far as practicable, applicable to all work of a similar character. The County Treasurer shall not be allowed any expenditure for attorneys' fees, but it shall be the duty of the attorney to the County Commissioners to advise him and act as attorney for him in all of his official work requiring the advice or services of an attorney for him as Treasurer, and no compensation shall be charged, allowed or paid to any paper other than as designated by the County Commissioners as hereinbefore set forth; provided, however, that all advertising to be done under this Act shall be inserted in two newspapers printed in said Charles county, bona fide representing the two political parties as aforesaid; and provided, further, that in case of controversy as to what newspaper in good faith represents either of the leading political parties that paper shall be named which may be designated by the central committee representing the party in which such controversy may arise.
