

chapter 629 of the Acts of 1902, and to add a new section to the aforesaid article, to be known as section 116i.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 93 of article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Charles County," sub-title "La Plata," as repealed and re-enacted by chapter 513 of the Acts of 1900, also section 116c, of the aforesaid article, as repealed and re-enacted of chapter 629 of the Acts of 1902, and chapter 580 of the Acts of 1906, also section 116g, of the aforesaid article, as the same was enacted by chapter 629 of the Acts of 1902, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and that a new section be added thereto to be known as section 116i, to read as follows:

93. The citizens of said town of La Plata having the qualification prescribed for voters by the laws of this State, and having resided in said town three months previous to any municipal election, shall annually on the first Monday in May, elect five freeholders, who shall have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as the Town Commissioners of La Plata, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Said Town Commissioners shall receive no pay for their services as such and they shall continue to reside in said town of La Plata during their term of office; provided, however, that there shall be no election of Town Commissioners in the month of May, 1908, but that Philip E. Sasser, Conrad Posey, Warner A. Albrittain, Thomas S. Owens and Harry Malcolm shall be and constitute the Town Commissioners of La Plata from and after the first day of June, 1908, until the first day of June, 1910, subject to the provisions of this article or any part or amendments thereof, provided for the Town Commissioners elected for all other times than as herein in this section set forth, with power to fill vacancies occurring among their own number, as elsewhere in this article set forth for the Commissioners elected as herein otherwise provided.

116c. No person shall permit his horses, mules, hogs, or any cattle of any kind to run at large within the limits of the said town of La Plata; any person violating the foregoing provisions of this section by permitting any one of any species of any of said animals of either gender or of any age, to run at large within the limits aforesaid, belonging to him or in his custody or control, for himself or as trustee for others, or as parent or guardian of any infant, shall be subject to a fine of one dollar and costs for each individual of any species of the animals named so permitted to run at large, for the first offense, and for
