

the second offense to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars and costs, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, with such process and formal proceedings and for such appeal and prayer for jury trial and other rights as now prevail in this county in cases of misdemeanor now punishable by confinement in the penitentiary; provided, however, that in case the said fine shall not be paid after the same shall be imposed by the justice of the peace or the Circuit Court upon appeal, the same may be collected by the sheriff or any constable or the bailiff of said town by process similar to that by which judgments rendered by justices of the peace are collectible or if the sentence imposed shall be re-affirmed upon appeal to the Circuit Court are collected by the sheriff, and the sentence of the justice of the peace or the Circuit Court shall be considered as in the nature of a judgment for the purpose with the further provision that any property levied upon in pursuance of this Act shall not be subject to any exemption from execution, and in case of a second offense and failure to pay such fine in addition to the above remedy the party committing the same by permitting the animals to run at large as aforesaid shall be committed to jail until the fine shall be paid; provided, that in no case shall the imprisonment be for more than five days in the county jail of Charles county; and provided further, that instead of process in the nature of an arrest, the justice of the peace shall issue the ordinary process of summons as in civil cases to be followed by process of arrest, however, in case the party shall fail to appear after summons served upon him. No hogs shall be raised or kept penned or empenned for any purpose or be slaughtered or brought alive into the limits of La Plata except in transit through said town and for that purpose they shall be caged or in such manner confined as not to be able to walk or run over any portion of the streets or other portion of said town, nor shall any cattle of any kind be slaughtered within the limits of said town. Any person violating this provision shall be fined one dollar and costs recoverable as hereinbefore provided; if any animal or animals of any kind heretofore named of which the owner shall be unknown or can not be found, shall be found running at large in said town, the bailiff shall forthwith seize and impound the same, and shall give notice thereof by notice posted at the courthouse door, and if the owner shall not within three days thereafter appear and pay said bailiff the amount of the fine hereinbefore named and twenty-five cents extra for each day in which the said animal shall be taken and empounded, the said bailiff shall sell the same at public sale and after deducting one-half of the