

levy shall be disbursed exclusively for county purposes, but any person for whose use a levy is made shall be entitled to receive the sum in full, on the first day of January, after the levy is made, under an order of the County Commissioners. For the purpose of paying his State and county taxes, a person having a levy, of money, in any yearly levy, may procure an order therefor from the County Commissioners before the said first day of January, and the treasurer and collector shall receive as cash so much of the order as may be necessary to pay his taxes owed under such levy. If the amount levied to or for him is less than his taxes, it shall be applied as far as it will go to pay the same.

121A. The treasurer and collector shall pay to the treasurer of the Board of County School Commissioners of Dorchester county all moneys levied for the support of the public schools thereof at the time, and in the manner prescribed by the Public General Laws of this State.

121B. The said treasurer and collector, between the first day of January and the first day of October, in the year following the making of any levy, shall take proceedings to enforce the payment of all State and county taxes levied under any levy, so as to close and complete the collection thereof on or before said last named date; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent his proceeding after said date. In all cases when said official shall sell real or personal property, or both, to enforce the payment of taxes, he shall be entitled to charge as his compensation the same fees and commissions which the sheriff of said county receive in selling real and personal property under execution, which fees and commissions he shall charge and collect as a part of the costs of the proceedings to sell said property. The County Commissioners shall not order the payment of any money for county purposes unless the money for the payment thereof has been previously levied.

121C. Vernon S. Bradley, who in December, in the year nineteen hundred and seven, under the then existing law, was appointed or chosen clerk of the County Commissioners and County Treasurer of Dorchester county, may at any time after this and the foregoing sections, as sections of article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, go into effect, and before the first day of July, in the year nineteen hundred and eight, take the oath of office, prescribed by the State Constitution, and he may execute and present for their approval to the County Commissioners, the bonds prescribed in the foregoing section one hundred and seven. After he has taken said oath of office and after the said bonds have been by him executed and presented to the
