

County Commissioners, and by them have been approved, he, the said Vernon S. Bradley shall be and become entitled to hold the said office of clerk to the County Commissioners and of treasurer and collector of State and county taxes in Dorchester county, as provided under the foregoing sections, and to enter upon and take the said office, on the first day of July, in and for the year nineteen hundred and eight, and he shall hold the said office until the first day of January, in the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until his successor has been appointed or chosen and qualifies, and during his said term of office he shall perform all the duties, possess and exercise all the powers, have all the rights and receive the compensations mentioned, appointed and prescribed for the clerk, the treasurer and collector of State and county taxes in Dorchester county, in the foregoing sections 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 115A, 115B, 115C, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 120A, 120B, 121, 121A, 121B and 121C of article ten aforesaid. He, the said Vernon S. Bradley, shall only receive the sum of nine hundred dollars as his compensation, for the last six months of the year nineteen hundred and eight. He shall hold his office of clerk of the County Commissioners and county treasurer, under his appointment in December, nineteen hundred and seven, up to the time he enters upon the office conferred on him by this section and no longer. If the said office conferred on the said Vernon S. Bradley by this section shall become vacant during his said term therein, the County Commissioners shall fill the vacancy, and the person appointed in his place shall hold the same till said term expires and until a successor is appointed and qualifies. The collectors of State and county taxes appointed in and before the year nineteen hundred and seven shall continue to hold office, perform all the duties and exercise all the powers with which they became invested when they qualified as collectors until they have completed the collection of the taxes placed in their hands for collection, and until they have performed all the duties connected therewith. No collectors for the collection of State and county taxes in any of the several election districts of Dorchester county shall be appointed after this and the foregoing sections go into effect. The collectors for the several election districts of Dorchester county, appointed in or before the year nineteen hundred and seven, shall pay all moneys collected by them for taxes which may remain uncollected and unpaid, on or after the first day of July, in the year nineteen hundred and eight, to the said Vernon S. Bradley, the treasurer and collector of State and county taxes, under this and the foregoing sections, in all respects as if he still
