

held the office to which he was appointed in December, in the year nineteen hundred and seven.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of May, nineteen hundred and eight.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 512.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments sections 185c and 185d of article 10 of the Code of Public Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Fish."

Be it enacted, That sections 185c and 185d of article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Fish," re-enacted to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Fish," be and the same is hereby amended by addition of three new sections thereto, to be known as sections 185c, 185d and 185e, and to read as follows:

SEC. 185c. It shall be unlawful for any person to use gill or gilling nets in the waters of Fishing Bay or Transquakin River, in Dorchester county, north of a line drawn from Blackwater Point to Irish Creek, up the Transquakin River to Destroys Creek, or to set or to fish weirs or other nets in the waters aforesaid with the farther end of said weirs or nets more than three hundred yards from shore north of said line drawn as aforesaid from Blackwater Point to Irish Creek, to a line drawn from Transquakin Point to Little Snake Island shells, near the mouth of Transquakin River, and on the opposite side of said Transquakin River to Transquakin Point, and it shall also be unlawful to set fish nets or weirs north of said line from Transquakin Point to Little Snake Island shells in the waters aforesaid of the Transquakin River as far as the northwest reach of said river, having the farther end of said nets or weirs more than two hundred yards from shore, and in no place from the waters of the Transquakin River up to the northwest reach thereof, shall any net or weir be set to extend more than one-third of the breadth of the water at the place where the said net or weir may be so set or fished; and it shall also be unlawful to set or fish any weirs or nets in the waters of the said Transquakin River, beginning with the northwest reach of said river as aforesaid up to the head of the river, extending more than one-half of the breadth of the water at the place where the