

chapter 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Junk Dealers," to be known as section 206A to follow immediately after section 206, so as to read as follows: Before any non-resident, firm or corporation shall engage in the business of buying or selling old iron, old brass, or other kind of goods, commonly called "junk," in Dorchester county, shall first obtain from the clerk of the Circuit Court of Dorchester county a license so to do for which they shall pay an annual fee of $25.00, which said license fee shall be for the benefit of the county. Every violation of this Act shall be decided a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars for each offense.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from May 1, 1908.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 633.

AN ACT to prevent and prohibit the sale of apple cider in Election District No. 5, commonly called Lakes District, in Dorchester county, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, or body corporate, firm or company, to sell or otherwise dispose of by way of barter, directly or indirectly, any cider made from apple, pear, peach, or any other manufactured cider, in Election District No. 5, commonly Lakes District, in Dorchester county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, or body corporate, firm or company, who shall violate the above section shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace, or Circuit Court of Dorchester county, be fined in the discretion of the justice of the peace or the judge of the Circuit Court, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, and in default of the payment of said fine shall be committed to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 430.

AN ACT to provide an additional notary public for Dorchester county, said notary public to be a female and to reside in