

slaughter houses within the corporate limits of said city, shall become effective, the duly qualified voters of the city of Frederick shall determine by a majority of their votes duly cast, whether the keeping of swine, hogs and pigs shall be prohibited within the corporate limits of Frederick city, and whether slaughter houses shall be prohibited within the corporate limits of said city. And the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick are hereby authorized to prepare an ordinance and submit the same to the qualified voters of the city of Frederick, at any general or special election that may be hereafter held in said city, who, at said election, shall determine by a majority of the votes duly cast, whether the keeping of swine, hogs and pigs shall be permitted or prohibited within the corporate limits of Frederick city, and the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick are hereby authorized to prepare an ordinance and submit the same to the qualified voters of the city of Frederick, at any general or special election that may be hereafter held in said city, who, at said election, shall determine by a majority of the votes duly cast, whether slaughter houses shall be permitted or prohibited within the corporate limits of said city. And the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick are hereby authorized and empowered to pass all laws and ordinances which may be necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying out the powers hereby conferred. And be it further enacted, that the provisions of this section giving the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick the power to prohibit the keeping of swine, hogs and pigs within the corporate limits of Frederick city, and to prohibit slaughter houses within the corporate limits of said city under certain conditions, shall in no way repeal or modify, abrogate or impair any authority which said city now has relating to hog pens and slaughter houses under sections 190 and 196 of article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, and section 270A of chapter 77 of the Acts of Assembly of 1894.

SEC. 270G. The Mayor and Aldermen shall have power to acquire by purchase or condemnation any land or property, or any interest therein which it may require for any public or municipal purpose, and may provide such methods of condemnation of any land or property or interest therein, situated within or without the city of Frederick, as they may deem proper, under such procedure as it may adopt; it shall provide for reasonable notice to the owner or owners and for appeals to the Circuit Court for Frederick county by any person interested, including the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, from the decision of any jury, commissioners or other persons appointed to value any such land or property, or interest