

erick," as the same was repealed and re-enacted by chapter 31 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments.

SEC. 223. No ordinance of said city, except as specially provided in the charter of said city, shall impose a fine of more than one hundred dollars for any one offense, or authorize a commitment to the jail of Frederick county for more than ninety days at one time.

SEC. 255. All offenses against the laws and ordinances of the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick shall be tried and determined by one of the justices of the peace of Election District Number Two, of Frederick county, and all arrests for breaches of the laws and ordinances of the corporation shall be made by the constables appointed by the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, and by no other constables whatsoever, and for compensation for services rendered under this sub-title of this article each of said justices of the peace shall receive in equal quarterly instalments from the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick the sum of three hundred dollars annually, and each of said justices shall have jurisdiction to try all causes and to impose the respective penalties therefor prescribed by the ordinances of the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, and which by the terms of said ordinances are to be imposed by the Mayor and Aldermen, as well as the penalties hereafter prescribed by said Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, by ordinance passed in accordance with the provisions of the charter of Frederick city; and said justices of the peace shall pay quarterly to the Register of Frederick city all fines and costs collected by them in corporation cases, and any one of them upon failure to do so shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Frederick county, and upon conviction shall be fined the sum of one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not less than two months and not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court; and each of said justices shall produce his docket when requested to do so by the Board of Aldermen, and may be interrogated under oath in regard to the entries therein.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first Monday in May, in the year nineteen hundred and eight, and that all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 6, 1908.