

SEC. 246. The Mayor and Aldermen are authorized and empowered to levy annually, with full power to provide by ordinance for the collection of the same, upon the taxable property of the city, such taxes as may be necessary in their judgment, to pay all expenses and debts of the corporation and all obligations incurred by the corporation in pursuance of the power conferred by this sub-title of this article; such taxes, when levied, shall be a lien upon the property on which they are levied in the same manner, as State and county taxes are liens on property on which such taxes are levied.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and that all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 10, 1908.

CHAPTER 359.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 289_A of article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," as the same was repealed and re-enacted by chapter 350 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, in the year nineteen hundred, and to enact a new and additional section to follow section 289_A, and to be known as section 289_B.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 289_A of article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," as the same was repealed and re-enacted by chapter 350 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session in the year nineteen hundred, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments; and the following new and additional section, to be known as section 289_B, to follow section 289_A be enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 289_A. Three justices of the peace for Election District Number Two, provided for in the preceding section, shall each be paid by the County Commissioners of said county, in equal quarterly instalments, the sum of three hundred dollars per annum, and shall receive no other or further fees for any services rendered by them in criminal cases or arrests for the violations of any of the laws of the State of Maryland, and said justices shall issue upon application therefor warrants for the arrest of persons charged with violating any provisions of the
