

laws of Maryland, and shall account for and pay over to the Board of School Commissioners, or to the County Commissioners of said county, all fines and penalties collected by them, which are payable to the County Commissioners or to the School Commissioners under the law.

SEC. 289B. The several justices of the peace for Election District Number Two of Frederick county shall have, in addition to the jurisdiction which they now possess, and which may be conferred on them by or under the laws of this State, jurisdiction concurrent with that exercised by the Circuit Court of Frederick county, in all cases of assault without any felonious intent; and in all cases of assault and battery, and in the following other misdemeanors, to wit: cruelty to animals, vagrancy, collection of tolls from funerals, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, disturbance of public peace, adultery, wrongfully opening or breaking the seal of any letter not addressed to the party, selling deadly weapons to minors, obscene publications, blasphemy, destroying bounded or boundary trees, fraud upon turnpike companies, all charges of violations of health laws, violations of law relating to turnpike companies, failing to keep a light reflected upon toll bars, trading stamps and female sitters; and said justices shall have power to issue all processes and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of their said jurisdiction; may try and determine all cases whereof they may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein in the same manner and to the same extent as the Circuit Court for Frederick county could in such cases if said cases were tried before said court, without the investigation of a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before any such justice having jurisdiction of the case, shall before trial for the alleged offense pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for said county shall before the trial of such alleged offense pray a jury trial on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of any such justice to commit such alleged offender for trial in the Circuit Court for Frederick county, at its then session if it be in session, or the next session if it be not then in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the name and residence of the witnesses for the prosecution indorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of the Circuit Court, and the justice before whom the case is tried shall inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial, and on receipt of the recognizance sent up by the justice, the clerk shall place the same on the appeal docket, and issue a subpoena for the witnesses named by the justice, and the case shall be tried on the information or the warrant, as if on appeal; and if on waiver of