

and collect taxes thereon necessary to carry into effect the ordinances of the town, said tax not to exceed two dollars and one-half on the one thousand dollars; to provide licensing any peddler, huckster or any person trading or selling any produce, live stock or merchandise on the streets of said town; to tax all telephone, telegraph and railroad poles fifty cents per annum.

10. The Burgess and Councilmen shall cause the footways of said town to be paved and repaired at the expense of the owners of lots binding thereon, whenever they may direct said work to be done, and shall direct how and of what materials the same shall be paved or repaired.

11. The Burgess and Councilmen may appoint annually a policeman or policemen, who shall have power to preserve the peace and good order of the town, and shall serve all civil and criminal processes that may be directed to him, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinances; and they may, from time to time, appoint such additional policemen and other officers as may be required for the preservation of order in said town. The Burgess may also direct civil and criminal processes to the sheriff of Frederick county or to a duly qualified county constable, and when so directed the said sheriff or county constable, as the case may be, shall serve the same within the police limits of said town.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to impair or affect any right or contract of the Burgess and Council of Myersville heretofore acquired or made, but all rights, suits, claims, demands, contracts or obligations existing and pending at the time of the passage of this Act shall remain in full force and effect; and the Burgess and Councilmen of Myersville now in office under the provisions and sections of chapter 94 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed in the year 1904, shall remain in office with full authority to assert, prosecute and defend all such pending rights, suits, claims, demands, contracts or obligations, and to exercise all the powers and duties of Burgess and Councilmen under the provisions of said Act and under the provisions of this Act, until their successors are elected and qualified as hereinbefore provided, and with full power to collect all taxes heretofore assessed and levied within the said taxable limits of said corporation and remaining unpaid at the time of the passage of this Act.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That sections twelve and fifteen of chapter 94 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed in the year 1904, entitled "An Act to incorporate the
