

Town of Myersville, in Frederick County, Maryland," be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 527.

AN ACT to require the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to place a watchman or flagman at the crossing one-fourth of a mile below the station at Doubs, Frederick county, Maryland, to supersede the bell, now employed at that place by the said company, to warn all those who may have occasion to use the crossing, of the approach of trains.

Whereas the bell, now in use at the crossing one-fourth of a mile below the station at Doubs, Frederick county, Maryland, does not afford sufficient protection to those who use the said crossing, because of the fact that frequently the said bell does not ring when the trains are approaching the said crossing, thereby rendering said place exceedingly dangerous for all who lawfully use said crossing; and

Whereas it is deemed expedient and salutary to improve upon this defective mode of giving signals, and thus insure more protection and safety to those who may rightfully use said crossing; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company be and it is hereby required to place a watchman or flagman at the crossing, one-fourth of a mile below the station at Doubs, Frederick county, Maryland, to supersede the bell now employed at that place, by the said company, to warn all those who may have occasion to use the said crossing of the approach of trains; said watchman or flagman to guard the said crossing during each and every day from 6 o'clock A. M. to 9 o'clock P. M.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if the said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, it shall be compelled to pay the sum of fifty dollars for each and every of such failure, neglect or refusal, to be collected at the suit of any person aggrieved thereby; one-half of the said sum to be paid to the plaintiff in said suit, the other half to the Board of School Commissioners of Frederick county, Maryland.
