

leading from Kitzmillerville to Wilson's store crosses said mountain; then with the county road to Wilson's store upon the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; then by a straight line to the head of Deep creek; then down with Deep creek to the State dam and the point of beginning.

SEC. 12. District number eleven (11) shall be known as the Elbow district and shall begin on Mill run at a point when the line dividing Allegany and Garrett counties intersects said run; and run with the line of Allegany county to the intersection of said line with Wright's run; then up said run by its west fork to the head thereof; then by a straight line crossing Savage Mountain to the bridge over Savage river near the John Wilhelm place; then running with the Barton and Lonaconing road to Mrs. Hanson Brown's place on Pea ridge; then south on Pea ridge with the Barton road and on the Henry Broadwater, Jr., at the head of Horton hollow; thence across to William W. Broadwater's; thence across to the headwaters of Bear Pen run near James Reshe's place; then down Bear Pen run to Savage river; then down with said river to the old ford; thence by a straight line to the head of the west fork of Mill run; then down Mill run to the point of beginning.

SEC. 13. District number twelve (12) shall be known as Bittenger district and shall begin at the head of Bear Pen run near the James Reshe's place in the "Backwoods," and run thence to Horse pond or Poplar run by way of Ashford Warnick's, at old lumber camp near Perry Broadwater's; then with said run to one of its springs at James Madison Dust; then running in a straight line to the top of Meadow Mountain; then with said mountain to James Ross' residence; then by a direct line to Charles O. Warnick's residence; then by way of Jacob Hoovers to county road near Benedict Beachy's farm; then to top of Negro Mountain by Rushe's mill and John Spiker's former place; then with the top of said mountain southward to the county road leading from John Harman's to the town of Accident; then with said road east to the forks of the road leading toward McHenry near John Harman's; then by a straight line to the head spring of Meadow Mountain run on east side of Meadow Mountain; then to the head of north branch of Middle Fork, near Buckner Masons; then with said north fork to the mouth of Black Hawk run; then by a straight line to the head of Bear Pen run at James Reshe's, the point of beginning.

SEC. 14. District number thirteen (13) shall be known as Kitzmillerville district and shall begin on the State line on the Potomac river, opposite the mouth of Three Forks run near