

in any quantity whatever within the limits of any political sub-division or district in said county which the same is anti-saloon territory, or keep and have in his possession any intoxicating liquors with intent to sell or otherwise dispose of same in violation of the provisions of this Act, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20), nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days, nor more than thirty days, or be both so fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this section, and shall subsequently violate any provision of this section, he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than five hundred ($500) dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days, nor more than ninety days. And in like maner if he shall subsequently violate any provision of this section for such third and each subsequent violation he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than two hundred dollars ($200), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months, nor more than one year. The State's Attorney of Garrett and justices of the peace in and for said county having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the provisions of this section, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments shall allege such previous conviction therein, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Circuit Court of said county to furnish information concerning such prior conviction to the State's Attorney and grand jury. A certified transcript from the docket of any justice of the peace or a certified copy of the record under the seal of the clerk of the Circuit Court shall be sufficient evidence of a previous conviction or convictions under any section of this Act. It shall be sufficient in such presentment or indictment to allege briefly that person has been convicted of a violation or violations of the provisions of this section.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the giving away, delivery or handling of any intoxicating liquors by any store-keeper, or at any place of business, or the taking of soliciting of orders, or the making of agreements at or within any political sub-division or district while the same is "Anti-Saloon Territory," for the sale or delivery, or future giving away of any intoxicating liquors, or any other shift or devise to evade any provisions of this Act, shall be held to be an unlawful selling.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That all places where intoxicating liquors is sold in violation of any provisions of this Act shall be taken and held and are declared to be common nuis-