

SEC. 179. Whenever the owner or agent of an owner or owners of any stallion or jackass shall have complied with the foregoing provisions of this sub-title, the services of such stallion or jackass shall become a lien on each mare served, together with the foal resulting from said service, for the amount agreed upon between the owner of the mare and the owner of the stallion or jackass at the time of the service, or in the event of no such agreement, then in such an amount as is specified for the service of such stallion or jackass in the statement hereinbefore required to be filed with the clerks of courts of the respective counties or of Baltimore city.

SEC. 180. Any person entitled to a lien under this sub-title, shall file a claim or statement of the same in the office of the clerk of the court for the county where the owner of the mare resides, or if such owner is a resident of Baltimore city, then such lien shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City; provided, that the statement of said lien shall be filed within twelve months from the date of the service of the stallion or jackass for which the lien is claimed, and that the lien shall terminate at the end of six months from the date of the filing of the same; and for the proper recording of said liens the clerks of the circuit courts for the several counties and the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City shall keep a docket, to be called the "Stallion or Jackass Lien Docket," in which shall be recorded all liens filed in their respective counties or city.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 3, 1908.
