

ances and may be abated as such; and it shall be the part of the judgment upon the conviction of the keepers, that the place where the liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond with sufficient security to be approved by the court in the penal sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned that he will not sell intoxicating liquors contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for the use of Garrett county for any fine or fines that may be assessed against him under this Act.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Garrett county are hereby authorized to use any part of the fines and forfeitures collected for the violation of this Act, for hiring detectives or secret service officers to secure the enforcement of the same. And when there are no funds available from fines or forfeitures collected for the violation of this Act, such County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appropriate not more than two hundred dollars from the general revenues fund for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That any Supervisor of Election, judge of election, police officer or other officer of the law, who shall wilfully refuse or neglect or fail to discharge any duty imposed by this Act, and any one who signs a petition, provided for in this Act, knowing he is not qualified to do so or who files with the Supervisors of Elections any such petition or any sheet or other part thereof, knowing that it contains the signature of a person not qualified to sign the same, or who received, requests or demands, or gives, offers or promises any reward for signing or the refraining from signing of any such petition, or who by treating or giving intoxicating liquors or anything else of the same or different kind, or by threats to injure another in person or property, or by betting or other device, either directly or indirectly, influence or attempt to influence any one to sign or refrain from signing any such petition shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or be both so fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provisions of this section and shall subsequently violate any provisions of this section for such second and each subsequent violation he shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred, and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than ninety days.