

And the book and all such prescriptions before provided for shall be open to inspection by any State's Attorney, justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction, judge of any court, or any sheriff, constable or other police officer. Any druggist or pharmacist who shall fail to keep such record, or shall fail or refuse to make any entry therein required by law, or shall destroy or alter or change in any way any such record or any entry therein, or any prescription or procure the same to be destroyed, altered or changed, or shall fail to cancel any such prescription, or shall refill any prescription or shall sell intoxicating liquor for medicinal purposes in written prescription or for sacramental purposes without an order signed by a clergyman shall for each sale in violation of the provisions of this section be deemed guilty of unlawful selling, and on conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a sale by such druggist of such liquor as may be needed by or for a sick person in case of extreme illness, when delay may be dangerous. It shall be unlawful for any druggist or pharmacist who has been convicted of selling intoxicating liquors in violation of this Act thereafter to sell intoxicating liquors for any purpose personally or by agent for two years in any "Anti-Saloon Territory," and upon a second conviction for violating the provisions of this Act any such druggist or pharmacist shall have his certificate to practice pharmacy revoked, and the justice of the peace or the judge before whom such druggist or pharmacist is convicted of a second violation of this Act shall so order and send a copy of such order to the Commissioners of Pharmacy, upon receipt of which such certificate shall forthwith be revoked by such Commissioners of Pharmacy, and shall not be renewed within one year from the date of such revocation.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, or public or private carrier to knowingly accept or receive for shipment, transportation or delivery to any person or place within an anti-saloon territory, or to carry, bring into, transfer to any other person, carrier or agent, handle, deliver or distribute in an "Anti-Saloon Territory" any intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called, and whoever shall by himself or another, either as principal, clerk, agent or servant, knowingly violate any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and upon conviction of any subsequent violation of this section in addition to such fine shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months; provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to individ-
