

uals who may bring into any "Anti-Saloon Territory" upon their person or as their personal baggage, and for their private use, such liquor in quantity not to exceed one gallon, nor to physicians or druggists to whom any public carrier may deliver such goods in unbroken packages, in quantity not to exceed five gallons at any one time, nor to deliveries to churches, or the proper officers thereof of wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes, nor to deliver at private residences which are not places of business or public resorts by manufacturers or wholesalers, by their own conveyances in unbroken packages of liquors, the contract for the sale of which was consummated outside of "Anti-Saloon Territory," nor to deliveries within any city which is not "Anti-Saloon Territory" throughout its entire extent; nor to shipments of liquor in continuous transits to a point outside of such anti-saloon territory; this section shall apply to all packages of intoxicating liquor whether broken or unbroken. Each package of intoxicating liquor regardless of the name by which it may be called, accepted, received, carried, transferred, handled, delivered or distributed in violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a separate offense, the acceptance, receiving, carrying, transferring, handling, delivering or distribution of intoxicating liquor under false or fictitious names in an "Anti-Saloon Territory" shall work a forfeiture of such liquor. It is further expressly provided that no provision of this section is intended or shall be construed to violate or be in conflict with any provision of the Constitution and laws of the United States respecting interstate commerce, but this section and all parts of same are intended to prohibit the acceptance, receiving, carrying, transferring, handling, delivery or distribution as herein provided, of intoxicating liquor to such extent only as the same is not expressly permitted under the Constitution and laws of the United States. If any provision of this section shall be held to be void or unconstitutional, it is hereby provided that all other portions of same which are not expressly held to be void or unconstitutional shall continue in full force and effect.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of this Act, which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors may be either upon presentment or indictment, or by trial before a justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent with the Circuit Court for Garrett county; and the said justice shall have the power to issue all process, and to do all acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all cases whereof he may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein, in the
