

CHAPTER 128.

AN ACT to punish persons taking and carrying away with intent to convert to their own use fish of another person, firm or corporation from any boat, live box, or in the pocket or crib of any pound net or inclosed or gilled in a fish net of any kind.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons taking and carrying away fish belonging to another person, firm or corporation, with intent to convert the same to their own use, from any boat, live box, or in the pocket or crib of any pound net or inclosed or gilled in a fish net of any kind, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction shall be fined a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or sentenced to the county jail in the county where he shall be first brought for trial, or to the Maryland House of Correction, for a period not exceeding two years, or both fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 25, 1908.

CHAPTER 597.

AN ACT to prohibit licensed dealers in liquors in the State of Maryland from soliciting, enticing or influencing persons to drink on the premises of such licensed dealers, by offering, directly or indirectly, any food, viands or lunch of any kind to persons visiting such premises.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person engaged in the sale or barter of spirituous, malt or intoxicating liquors, and licensed under the laws of Maryland, to engage in such sale or barter, who shall directly or indirectly give or offer to anyone visiting the premises of such licensed person, where spirituous, malt or intoxicating liquors of any kind are sold or bartered, or offered for sale or barter, any viands, food or lunch of any character, except as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of inducing, procuring or influencing the person to whom the same may be offered, to purchase in any quantity, spirituous, malt or intoxicating liquor to be drunk on the premises of such licensed person, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than ten dollars for each offense; provided, however, that this Act shall not
