

tract which will secure such child a proper home and will make the person so receiving the child responsible for its proper care, education, and training; that they will properly supervise the care and training of such child, and cause such child to be visited, at least once in six months, by a responsible person, and that they will make the said Board of State Aid and Charities of Maryland such reports of their work as the said board from time to time may require."

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person, corporation, association or institution, or any officer or agent thereof, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined a sum not exceeding one thousand ($1000) dollars.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall not apply to a relative going to any other State, and bringing a child into this State for the purpose of giving it a home in his or any other family, nor to the placing of children in any institution in this State.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 3, 1908.

CHAPTER 325.

AN ACT to provide for the appointment by the Governor of this State of a Commission of three persons to revise the criminal law of the State, and providing compensation for said Commission and a fund to defray the necessary expenses thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, That within sixty days after the passage of this Act the Governor shall appoint a Commission, consisting of three members of the Bar, of capacity, learning and experience, who are hereby constituted a Board of Commissioners by the name and style of Commission for the Revision of the Criminal Law of the State of Maryland, whose duty it shall be carefully to revise the criminal laws of this State and to prepare and report to the General Assembly of Maryland at the next session the draft of a bill revising, making harmonious and rearranging systematically the criminal statutes now in force in Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the members of said Commission shall each receive the sum of two thousand dollars for their services on said Commission, to be paid them upon the