

been cast against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquor, then in all such districts it shall not be lawful after September 1, 1908, for any person or persons or body corporate, his, her, its or their employes, agents or clerks to sell or barter or give away in the course of trade any spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic drinks of any kind, lager beer or any beverage of an intoxicating character within the limits of any district of Prince George's county mentioned in this Act or parts of districts; nor shall it be lawful for the clerk of the Circuit Court or License Board or anyone to issue license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquor under the penalties prescribed in the seventh section of this Act, within any such districts.

SEC. 6. But in case a majority of the votes cast should be in favor of the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors then this Act shall be of none effect and all Acts shall remain unrepealed.

SEC. 7. That any person or persons, or corporations, his, her, their or its agent, servant or employe who shall violate the provisions of section five of this Act and shall sell, barter or give away in the course of trade any spirituous or fermented liquors, lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind within the limits of any of the said districts, he, it or they shall on conviction be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail or the house of correction for not less than thirty days nor more than one year or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court or the justice of the peace trying said case, and any justice of the peace of said county is hereby given jurisdiction and is authorized to issue all necessary warrant or warrants for the arrest and conviction of any offender, and jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon all justices of the peace of Prince George's county original and concurrent with the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county to institute proceedings, try all cases, sentence parties and enforce the penalties and sentences imposed; provided, in case any party feeling aggrieved thereby or the State's Attorney, may take an appeal from the judgment to the next jury term of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county, upon entering into recognizance with a surety or sureties for appearance, and it shall be the duty of the said justice to require all witnesses against the party charged to enter into recognizance for their appearance at the trial of said cause, and on failure to furnish satisfactory security to commit the alleged offender and witnesses.

SEC. 8. Provided, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the compounding by druggists or pharmacists of