

shall be specifically described, directed to the sheriff or some constable of said county, commanding him thoroughly to search said described place and the appurtenances thereof and if any there be found, to take into his possession and safely keep, to be produced as evidence when required, all intoxicating liquors, and all the means and paraphernalia for selling or dispensing the same, and any United States internal revenue tax receipt for the keeping or sale of intoxicating liquors, effective for the time of search or alleged violation, and take the name and addresses of all persons present at said place, at such time, and forthwith report all said facts, in writing, to the State's Attorney for Prince George's county; and any such intoxicating liquor, or the means or paraphernalia for selling or dispensing the same, or any United States internal revenue tax receipt for the keeping or sale of the same, effective as aforesaid, shall be held to constitute prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of this Act, as charged or presented; and if the accused shall be found guilty, the intoxicating liquor so seized shall, after the time of trial and appeal has expired, be destroyed by the sheriff, and the other property be held as the property of the accused or of the real owner; if the accused shall be found not guilty, the whole shall be held as his property, or as the property of the real owner.

SEC. 11. That in any indictment under the provisions of this Act for the violation of the preceding sections thereof, it should not be necessary to specify the particular kind of liquor which is sold or dispensed, or that the same is actually sold or dispensed, but it shall be sufficient if the indictment sets forth that the traverser bartered or sold or solicited or received orders for the purchase of, or deposited, kept or had in possession, with the intent to barter or sell spirituous or fermented or alcoholic liquors or intoxicating liquors, or with the intent that the same be bartered or sold in violation of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 12. Provided that nothing in this Act shall apply to cases now pending, nor to violations of the law that have heretofore occurred, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted and punished as provided by the laws hereby repealed, by the provisions and effect of this Act, as if the same were still in force.

SEC. 13. That in the interpretation of this Act, and to enlarge the meaning of the terms, the word "person" shall be construed to include partnership, company, association, club and body corporate; words of singular number shall include the plural and those of masculine gender include the feminine; that the words "sell" and "dispense" shall be construed to
