

sinking fund so set apart shall ever be diverted to any other purpose than to the purchase and liquidation of said bonds; and should the said superintendent or the County School Commissioners or any other person having charge of said sinking fund suffer or permit the same or any part thereof to be diverted from or applied to any other purpose than the investment thereof for the purchase of said bonds, and the purchase and redemption of the same, then the person or party so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subjected to a fine of not less than twice the amount so misapplied or diverted.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the County School Superintendent shall keep a separate account of the money applied each year to the payment of interest on said bonds, as well as the amount of money deposited each year to the creation and support of the sinking fund, to meet the principal of said bonds at maturity.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the money arising from the sale of said bonds as provided in section 7 of this Act, shall be paid to the School Superintendent of Prince George's county, and that it may be applied to the purpose set forth in this Act, the funds so realized shall be paid by the said School Superintendent to the aforesaid Building Committee upon its order; and the said Building Committee is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the contractor or contractors or architect employed by the said Building Committee in accordance with the terms of their said contract, upon the order of said Building Committee, such sum or sums of money as such contractor or contractors are entitled to in the performance of their contracts, and shall pay, upon the warrant of the Building Committee, the cost of plans and specifications of the work proposed to be done, the salary of the supervising architect and such other expenses that said Building Committee may properly have incurred in the discharge of their duty.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 23, 1908.