

above provided or otherwise, in their discretion, if said bids received under the first offer are below the par value with accrued interest thereof; provided, that said bonds shall not be disposed of by said County Commissioners at less than their par value, together with the accrued interest thereon.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said bonds shall be issued in series from one to ten, inclusive, according to the aggregate amount issued, each series consisting of two thousand dollars of said amount, and shall be redeemable and payable as follows: Two thousand dollars thereof on the first day of July in the year 1909, and thereafter annually on the first day of July in each and every year two thousand dollars thereof until the whole amount so issued shall have been paid.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at their maturity and for securing the prompt payment of the interest thereon, the said County Commissioners are hereby empowered and directed to annually levy on the assessable property of the said county such sum or sums of money as shall, in their discretion, be necessary for the prompt payment of the interest on said bonds and the principal thereof when the same shall become due; which said sum or sums thus levied shall be strictly applied to the payment of said interest and to the redemption of said bonds, as the same shall mature, and to no other debts or obligations of said county; and said levy to be designated on the records of the office of said County Commissioners and on the face of said bonds as the "Jail Building Fund;" said bonds shall also have imprinted on them a distinct reference to the Act directing their issue.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the bonds authorized by this Act shall be exempt from all county and municipal taxes whatsoever, and the interest on said bonds shall be receivable in payment of county taxes.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to tear down and remove or otherwise dispose of the present jail of said county, if its existence shall in any manner hinder or impede the construction of the new jail, and to provide temporarily at the expense of said county such accommodation for the sheriff of said county and for the prisoners in his custody as they may deem proper and expedient; but if the existence of the present jail shall not hinder or impede the construction of the new jail on the site as selected by the said Commissioners, then it shall not be torn down, removed or otherwise disposed of until the new jail is completed and ready for use.
