

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of all or any part of the public grounds within the present jail enclosure not used by said County Commissioners for the purpose of erecting thereon said new jail, sheriff's residence and stable, and the proceeds arising from the sale of said ground as aforesaid, if any, and from the sale of the old jail building, as provided for in section 7 hereof, if any, shall be applied towards reduction of the jail bonds provided for in this Act.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That when the building of the said jail, sheriff's residence and stable and the furnishing and equipping of said jail is completed, the said County Commissioners shall make a full and explicit statement of the amount of bonds issued by them under this Act and a full and detailed statement of the cost of building the said jail, sheriff's residence and stable and of the furnishing and equipping of said jail, the name of every person to whom money was paid, for what purpose or purposes said money was paid, and the amount of every such payment, and the said County Commissioners shall publish said statement for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in Queen Anne's county; and all moneys used or to be used in the contracting for and building of said jail, sheriff's residence and stable and for the furnishing and equipping of said jail as provided for aforesaid, are to be paid by the county treasurer of Queen Anne's county out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds as aforesaid upon warrant or warrants issued by the said County Commissioners and signed by the president of said Board of County Commissioners.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 76.

AN ACT to amend article 18 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Queen Anne's County," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks," by adding thereto a new section, to follow section 196, and to be numbered section 196A, making it unlawful to solicit, take or receive orders within the limits of Queen Anne's county for the purchase or delivery of any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, or alcoholic bitters.
