

l. For the purpose of constructing and establishing fish hatcheries, as an aid to the conservation and production of sea food.

m. For any and all such other purposes not herein specifically enumerated as may be deemed necessary and proper, in the discretion of the said Executive Committee, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, for the defense of the State, the safety of its people and the protection of property, and to aid the State or the United States in the present war; and also for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of any Act or Acts of Assembly, which are not herein specifically mentioned, but which may be intended or may be resorted to for the defense of the State, or the safeguarding of its people and property, or otherwise aiding the State or the United States, in the present war, whether such Act or Acts of Assembly are now existing or may hereafter be passed. The said Executive Committee, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, is particularly authorized and made the agency to expend the proceeds of this loan in the manner herein described, for any and all of the purposes authorized by the Act passed by the present extraordinary session of the General Assembly relating to the establishment of a military camp within this State, in accordance with said Act; and also for any or all health or sanitary purposes of any kind whatever, and at any place or places whatsoever, which may be desirable and proper for or by reason of or as an incident to said military camp, with authority to do any and all such work by or through or in connection with such existing boards, commission or other agencies or instrumentalities, State or National, or otherwise, as may be expedient.

n. The purposes above mentioned shall be liberally construed, and any and all expenditures which can fairly be said to be desirable or appropriate to effectuate any of them, and to carry out the objects of this Act, are authorized to be made out of the loan hereby provided for.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That the said Executive Committee of the Maryland Council of Defense, by and with the approval and sanction of the Governor, shall, from time to time, investigate and determine the purposes afore-
