

said for which, or for some or any of which, the proceeds of the loan hereby authorized, or any part or parts thereof, shall be expended, and may, from time to time, apportion said moneys among said purposes in such amounts as they deem proper. No moneys shall be expended from the proceeds of this loan, or any part or parts thereof, for any of the purposes authorized by this Act other than such of said purposes as may, from time to time, be so determined, nor shall any of such moneys be expended for any purpose so determined in excess of the amount apportioned, from time to time, to such purpose as aforesaid.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That the General Assembly of Maryland, at its next regular session beginning in January, 1918, shall make proper provision, by way of levy or levies or in such other manner as may be adequate, for the prompt payment of the interest as and when due and payable, and for the prompt payment of the principal at the time or times named for the maturity thereof, of such of the certificates of indebtedness authorized by this Act as may then have been issued, and for the like payment of the interest and principal of any subsequent issue or issues of such certificates, to the end that the interest on and the principal of any and all certificates issued under this Act may be promptly paid as and when respectively due and payable, to the making of which payments, as and when due and payable, the faith and credit of the State of Maryland is firmly and irrevocably pledged; and in the event that any such interest or the principal of any of said certificates be or becomes due and payable before provision therefor has been made by the General Assembly of Maryland of 1918, as aforesaid, then the same shall be promptly paid from moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the making of which payments, as and when due and payable, the faith and credit of the State of Maryland is firmly and irrevocably pledged.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths
