

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all prisoners working upon the roads or streets under this Act, shall be entitled to the same deductions or allowances for good behavior, observance of discipline and rules and for diligent and faithful labor, and shall be subject to the same forfeitures or punishments for the lack or violation thereof, as such prisoners are now entitled to or are subject to under the laws of this State; and in addition to such forfeitures or punishments, any prisoner employed on road work under this Act who escapes or attempts to escape, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be confined for an additional term, in the discretion of the Court, not exceeding one-half of the entire term for which such prisoner had been sentenced prior to his escape or attempted escape; or such prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Court, be subject to any penalties which may be by law provided for prisoners escaping or attempting to escape from the institution to which he had previously been committed.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all expenses and disbursements incurred, under Section 5 hereof, by the State Board of Prison Control, for the guarding, transportation, lodging, feeding, clothing and medical and other care and attention of prisoners working under this Act for the State Roads Commission, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury available therefor and not otherwise appropriated, or out of any moneys appropriated for such purpose; in the latter event such payments to be made, from time to time, on the order of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Council of Defense, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, such orders to be directed to the Comptroller, who shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount thereof, as in law provided. The several counties, cities and towns are, respectively, authorized and empowered to make any and all appropriations, assessments and levies necessary to enable them, respectively, to pay the expenses and per diem payments which this Act authorizes or directs them to pay, in case Section 4 of this Act is availed of by them. The per diem payments which are to be made by the State Roads Commission, under Section 6 of this Act, shall be paid out of that Commission's appropriation.
