

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That if, upon examination of such person, it shall appear to such justice that there is probable cause to believe him guilty of the offense charged, the accused shall be required to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient securities, in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) to appear before the next term of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County to answer an indictment if one be preferred against him; and upon his failure to enter into such recognizance, the justice shall commit him to jail to answer such indictment. All material witnesses may also be required to enter into a recognizance with or without securities, as such justice may deem proper, to appear before the Grand Jury at the next term of said court and such justice shall require the accused to give bond with sufficient security in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), conditioned that he will not violate any of the provisions of this Act during the time intervening between the date of such bond and the adjournment of the next Court; and upon his failure to give such bond, the justice shall commit him to jail until such bond be given or until he be discharged therefrom by due process of law.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That whenever intoxicating liquors shall be seized in any room, building or place which has been searched under the provisions of this Act, the finding of such liquors in excess of the quantity permitted by this Act in such room of a United States retail liquor dealer's tax receipt therein shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful selling and keeping and storing for sale of the same by the person or persons occupying such premises, or by any person named in any such United States tax receipt posted in such room or his associates, agents or employees thereunder, and the proprietor or other persons in charge of the premises where such intoxicating liquors were found, or who is so named in such United States tax receipt, and his associates shall be subject to trial on the charge of selling or keeping or storing for sale unlawfully such intoxicating liquors, and upon his conviction the intoxicating liquors found upon said premises shall at once be publicly destroyed by some responsible person to be appointed by the Court.
