

said Government of the United States for such use and occupation.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the event a military camp is established by the United States Government (as aforesaid), it shall be and is hereby made unlawful to sell, give away or dispose of spirituous, fermented, malt or any intoxicating liquors within a zone surrounding the land used for said camp site, or other military purposes in connection therewith, said zone to be two miles in width measured from the outermost boundaries of the land used by the United States Government for said camp site and other military purposes connected therewith, and no license shall be issued for the sale of such liquors in said zone, and any person or persons, corporation, house, company, club or association, who or which shall, after the establishment of said camp site, sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of any spirituous, fermented, malt or any intoxicating liquors within the said zone as herein defined (except for medicinal or sacramental purposes) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.), and costs, or to imprisonment for not less than three months, nor more than twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court or of any justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction.

The provisions of this Section 3 of this Act shall remain in full force and effect until the United States Government shall cease to maintain the military camp hereinbefore mentioned, and all Acts and parts of Acts, whether general or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this Section 3 of this Act be and they are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Governor of this State be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint special policemen, not exceeding five in number, to patrol the said zone contiguous to the land to be used by the United States Government for a camp site, and other military purposes, and to see that the provisions of Section 3 of this Act are rigidly enforced, and to arrest, report and prosecute all persons violating the provisions of said Section 3 of this Act, or any other laws of this State, relating to crimes or mis-