

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any suspension or stay granted under the terms of this Act may be for such period of time as the court granting the same shall deem proper, but in no event for a period longer than the duration of the present war and six months thereafter; and upon the termination of any period so fixed by the court, such suspension or stay, if not continued or renewed, shall cease, and thereafter the cause or proceedings so suspended may proceed as if there had been no suspension or stay therein, but subject, however, to any reasonable conditions which the court may deem proper to impose in the interests of justice.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the court in which any cause or proceedings may be thus suspended or stayed, shall have the power, in its discretion, to rescind such suspension or stay at any time that said court deems that the interests of justice would be thereby subserved, such rescission to be upon such conditions, to date from the expiration of such time and to be predicated upon such notice, by service upon each person interested, or his attorney or representative, or by publication, as the court may deem proper; and thereafter such cause or proceedings may proceed as if there had been no suspension or stay therein, but subject, however, to any conditions which the court may impose as incident to such rescission.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That no cause or proceedings shall be suspended or stayed under the terms of this Act, except as to any person or persons entitled as aforesaid to the benefits of this Act, unless the court deems that the same is necessary for the proper protection of the interests of any such person or persons so entitled to the benefits of this Act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not apply to proceedings pending or hereafter instituted for:

- a. The recovery of rent.
- b. The recovery of wages or salary.
- c. Moneys due in any trust or fiduciary capacity.

Nor shall this Act apply to any case in which the court believes that any person within the terms of this Act has become
